

CONCERT ON 17TH MARCH 2017

On 17th March Gilbert De Greeve gave a beautiful Concert at the Hungarian Embassy in London. The Concert was part of the Zoltán Kodály Commemoration year and an important Fundraising event for the International Katalin Forrai Award. The programme comprised pieces by Zoltán Kodály and Robert Schumann.

Chairman of the British Kodály Academy, Margaret Oliver, thanks Gilbert De Greeve.

Katalin Forrai's son Tamás, his wife Marta and daughter Zsofi were the honoured guests.

The Award Committee extends grateful thanks to His Excellency the Ambassador of Hungary to London, the staff of the Embassy and to Gilbert De Greeve for a truly memorable evening for all those fortunate enough to be present.

Katalin Forrai's son Tamás thanks the Ambassador.

His Excellency Ambassador Kristóf Szalay-Bobrovniczky, Gilbert De Greeve, Tamás Vikar, Eszter Pataki and Mary Place.
